

Marshall D. Senterfitt is a Director at Goulston & Storrs in Boston and a leader of the firm's Probate and Fiduciary Litigation Group and Private Client Group. He and his colleagues represent individuals, families, charitable organizations, and bank and trust companies in high-stakes, highly-complex estate, trust, and fiduciary matters. Marshall is a Fellow of the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel, the immediate past-president and current board member of the Greater Boston Fiduciary Law American Inn of Court, and a former co-chair of the Fiduciary Litigation Committee of the Trusts & Estates Section of the Boston Bar Association. Marshall is a graduate of Northeastern University School of Law and UMass, Amherst.