

Ruth Mattson (she/they), a partner at Verill Dana LLP, concentrates their practice on international estate planning. Ruth's work includes helping U.S. persons plan for their international assets or receive gifts from foreign friends and family. They also advise beneficiaries and trustees regarding the U.S. tax positions and reporting requirements for foreign trusts. Ruth teaches international information reporting at Boston University School of Law's Graduate Tax Program. Ruth is an ACTEC Fellow and an active member of several trust and estate bars in Massachusetts. In 2021, Ruth received the Boston Estate Planning Council's President's Award for their advocacy around Massachusetts' emergency remote notarization act.
